Re: Senator John McCain's war monger attitude

Dear Mr. Barack Obama

I would like to express my opinions to you and I am speaking to you under the privilege of The Freedom of Speech, Canadian Charter of Rights & U.S. Bill of Rights.

I offer to you my opinion and interpretation on the matters surrounding your nation. When President George Bush commenced a 911 commission lead by Jim Baker (former secretary of state for George Bush senior) & Lee Hamilton (by partisan report on 911 commission) the findings were very clear. The findings that were reported to the president, politicians, US citizens and the rest of the world was a report that was done very honestly, neutrally & credibly. The report clearly stated that the Iraq let president has never been involved with Al-Qaeda or Osama bin Laden. There was also found to be no weapons of mass destruction in Iraq. My understanding of the reports findings and the action taken by the US government namely George W. Bush, is that the Iraq war or Invasion of Iraq (as I would word it) is Illegal. I would also suggest that the US should not be or continue to stay in Iraq. In my opinion should the US leave Iraq they would be protecting their own interest by avoiding lavish spending of US tax payer dollars, saving the lives of US military & marine soldiers as well as the innocent civilian men, women & children of Iraq. The report also suggested it would be best to have a dialogue with Syria, Iran & The Arab League to resolve this conflict.

President Bush ignored these recommendations and findings; he pursued his own war monger interests. In my opinion John McCain is the carbon copy of President Bush. President Bush unlike John McCain has never been involved in any war zone, but that does not give him anymore credibility as a politician. A war monger cannot be a successful politician. Only John McCain knows of his experiences being held in Vietnam, but in my view he his only capable of creating and pursuing war. He is incapable of creating peaceful political compromises in the world today. He demonstrates through his words and actions that he hates every nation except his own and those of his bias allies. I also feel that those allies who backed the Iraqi invasion are no better than President George W. Bush or John McCain.

In my opinion President George W. Bush acted as the head of and organized crime syndicate. Though he did not personally hold the gun and pull the trigger, he is however indirectly responsible by ordering the invasion of Iraq which resulted in the killings of tens of thousands of innocent Iraqi men, women & children. His inhuman and unconscionable actions should be brought before the courts either locally or internationally where he should face a reasonable penalty. President Bush's second in command Vice President Dick Cheney is like a hot potato. He is responsible for instigating the war along with the collaboration of corrupt others.

My mission as a humanitarian, educator, peace & environmental activist is to start taking the necessary steps to create peace in the world today. I wish to start pursuing this goal through the education of our children so that their growth and future will be bright. Our world is faced with many conflicts today, if steps aren't taken to get us as human beings regardless of race or religion on the right path, we will be doomed. My goal is to get the people of the world, inclusive of every single human being regardless of race or religion on the path to a brighter future. I am seeking only your whole heartedly support. I am financing this entire project with my own funds, but seek your support as a well respected leader. Your support and endorsement, as well as the support of other world leaders which I have written to, is necessary to create peace and eliminate everlasting borders that fuel hate.

I have sent this letter to you expressing my view and opinions, because I have a lot of love and respect for you. You have demonstrated through your actions and words to be a man of great integrity & honesty. I believe you will be the person who will able to bring about peaceful resolutions to the global conflicts we are faced with today.

Unfortunately I am not allowed to campaign for you, but nevertheless I support you, and pray for you & your success, and the well beings of you and your family. I believe you have an understanding far superior to any of your competitors regarding the situation your nation is faced with and the chaos the world is dealing with. You have demonstrated to be a caring individual who is willing to take the necessary steps to create a better life for US citizens as well as the necessary actions to promote peace in the world.

I am a daily follower of CNN, BBC, and Wolf Blitzer-situation room, in which I follow your success. It gives me great pleasure to see the updates of your upward momentum towards the next president of the United States. I offer you these words, Almighty Heavenly Father is our Creator, Protector, Provider and he makes provision, we are only the beneficiary. I also would like to offer you to read Psalm 91 & 42 from the bible New Testament, which basically says Heavenly Father is our protector and if he protects you then no one can harm you.

Once again I would like to relay to you as a humanitarian, educator, peace & environmental activist whose mission is to promote world peace and educate our children for a brighter future. I only seek your moral support in the hopes of making a difference. I would like to invite you to visit my website at www.omnisearch.org to view my peace proposal and my personal website at www.mahmudhussein.com and my business website at www.mhcrudeoil.com. I wish you success and my prayers are with you and you family.
