

Honorable United States Senator John McCain

June 12, 2008

Dear Mr. McCain

I would like to express my opinions to you and I am speaking to you under the privilege of The Freedom of Speech, Canadian Charter of Rights & U.S. Bill of Rights.

Further to my letter dated June 5.2008. I am writing this letter to you with the highest respect as the next president of the United States. But I have some troubling questions for you regarding the 911 commission lead by Jim Baker (former secretary of state for George Bush senior) & Lee Hamilton (by partisan report on 911 commission).

The 911 Commission report submitted to George W. Bush, the majority & minority senate leaders of both parties and the members of both the republican & democratic parties, as well as the innocent citizens of the United States and the world nations (myself included).

Regarding such report my questions are as follows:

-Was the commission report credible, honest & neutral or was the report misleading, dishonest, & bias?

-If the commission was honest & the report was not misleading, then who deserves to be the next President of the United States, you or Barack Obama ?

Your sacrifice at such a young age of being held in prison for five years during the Vietnam war was honorable. The experiences you must of captivated is beyond comprehension and thus I have a lot of respect and compassion for you. Many years ago I was watching Larry King who was interviewing Mr. Robert McNamara (then secretary of defense) he admitted that the Vietnam war was a mistake and wrong. The question I have is, was his statement wrong and was he misleading the citizens of the US and Larry King? If is statement was true then your sacrifice was done in vein, but if his statement was false then your sacrifice was done in honor (AAA+), and that would lead me to believe that you deserve to be the next president of the United States.

I am writing you and expressing my views and concerns as a humanitarian, educator, environmentalist & peace activist. I welcome you to visit my websites at www.omnisearch.org (peace solution), www.mahmudhussein.com, www.mhcrudeoil.com. I wish you success and earnestly await your reply.
